Fall 2017 Meal Plan Fees due by August 4, 2017.
Spring 2018 Meal Plan Fees due by December 8, 2017

Terms & Conditions: The Chabad House Meal Plan provides daily kosher meals when the university is in session. Shabbat dinner on Friday nights and lunches on Saturday are served after services, free of charge. A schedule of services and meals is posted each week in the lobby. The meal program begins on the first day of classes and continues until the last day of final exams, for a total of thirty-two (32) weeks. Meal plans may not be altered after the first week of the semester. Meal Plan fees cannot be prorated and are non-refundable. Take-out meals are available when arranged for in advance. Meal plans are non-transferable. Chabad House Meal Plan students may bring guests to meals. The student guest fees are: Breakfast – $8.00, Lunch -$13.00, and Dinner -$18.00. Non-student guest fees are: Breakfast - $10.00, Lunch - $15.00, Dinner - $20.00. There is no charge for Shabbat guests.

PLEASE NOTE that students signed up for the Complete or Traditional Meal Plans, may use up to 10 of their meals each semester for guests. A "guest" student can only use this privilege up to 10 times per semester. They cannot be a "guest" for someone else afterwards.

There shall be no soliciting or canvassing in the building whatsoever without written approval from the Director. Students may not post or leave flyers, pamphlets, etc., without the express permission of the Director. Students will be courteous and friendly to fellow students and dining hall personnel. In keeping with Rutgers policy, anyone exhibiting disruptive behavior will be required to leave the premises. Any student asked to leave the premises will not be entitled to a refund. This dining agreement requires self-busing. All students are required to clean their place after eating. The Chabad House Meal Plan is an honor system. If you are signed up for a meal program, you are welcome to eat all you can eat at every meal. However, you may not eat a meal at Chabad House and then pack up additional food to go. (Exception: if you are packing up to go for your next scheduled meal, than it is permissible. Please inform the register of your intention.) Under no circumstances may you pack up a meal for anyone else or serve food to anyone that has not paid, at any time. Please note that the Chabad House Parking Lot is unavailable for students on the meal plan.

I hereby accept from Chabad House Jewish Student Center at Rutgers University the above noted meal plan arrangements. I agree to abide by the Chabad House Dining terms and conditions governing this agreement.
